DEDICATION

LIPPERT HUFFORD

Marching down the field or playing in concert, the fast-moving Commodores, resplendent in new uniforms, won high acclaim from the student body. Their peppy tunes and unique confetti formations met with much success on the football field.

Drum Major Joan Lippert skillfully put the band through its paces, while Drum Majorette Betty Hufford performed acrobatic stunts. Dan L. Farmer capably directed the band and kept it marching and playing in the fast tempo so popular with the students.

The concert band showed the versatility of both players and director by winning a superior rating in the Northwestern Ohio District Band Contest at Ada, Ohio, March 29. A rating of excellent was received by the Commodores at the Ohio Music Finals Competition Festival, April 20, at Ohio State University, Columbus. This was the first P. H. S. band ever to participate in the state finals.

Much of the success of the band this year is credited to the twelve seniors who held first chairs and solo positions. A point system was introduced, whereby all deserving Commodores were awarded a letter at the end of the school year.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Perrysburg High School has been very fortunate in having an outstanding group of citizens on the Board of Education. Although receiving no compensation, Mr. C. H. Speck, Mr. Ralph Britten, Mr. Henry Goeke, Mr. George Roose, Mr. Harold Hoffman, and Miss Mardal Kautz, the high-school secretary, have worked exceptionally hard for school improvements.

The Board, which meets in the high-school office the second Tuesday of each month, is divided into five different committees to carry out the necessary business. Mr. Speck, president, and Mr. Roose are the committees in charge of the building and grounds and finance. Mr. Goeke and Mr. Britten are the bus and transportation committee. Mr. Goeke is also on the teacher committee; and Mr. Britten, on the athletic committee. Mr. Hoffman, the newly elected member and vice-president of the Board, is on both the teacher and athletic committees. Miss Kautz serves as clerk of the Board.

CLASS OF 1940

Representing some of the best students ever to attend Perrysburg High School, the 1940 class graduates with the satisfaction of giving the school its best in every field.

In athletics there were Irv Johnson, Jim Cryan, and Lloyd Finch, football standouts, while Bill Christman was a stellar performer in both football and basketball. Outstanding intramural contestants and leaders were Kenny Lusher, "Tally" Schwind, "Rab" Marriott, and Elmer Lintner.

In extra-curricular activities many have left behind them excellent records in their respective endeavors. Among these active leaders and their achievements were: Lee Fuller, president of the Hi-Y, an excellent member of the band, as well as an outstanding scholastic representative of the school; Grace Mills, president of the G. R.'s and president of the National Honor Society; Ed Wambold, president of the Boosters' Club, as well as a star on the varsity eleven; and Lucile Bostdorf, president of the G. A. A. and a member of the National Honor Society.

Journalism was well represented by Gene Deimling and Bob Dibling. Demling edited the Somethin' and the 1940 Black and Gold, while Dibling supervised and directed the photographic end of the annual.

In art, Mearl Schuele and Helen Pustay were representative of the two classes meeting daily with Miss Berg.

Pat Tobey and Dorothy Schaller were the Thespians playing important leads in the production What a Life, presented by the Farmers' Institute during the month of February.

Members of the band and the orchestra who aided their organizations by taking individual honors with their respective instruments, as well as with their constant interest in the welfare of their organizations, were Dale Huffman, drums; Berneda Sprague, flute; and Lee Fuller, clarinet.

All of the available space in the building was used for the production of the annual Senior Carnival, held in April. The head of the versatile committee producing the riotous affair was Jack Heilman.

A cafeteria for the Farmers' Institute, a moving picture for the entire student body, the Christmas dance, and, with the aid of their mothers, the P. T. A. banquet, all went toward making possible the trip taken by the seniors in the spring.

The final activity sponsored by the class of '40 was the play Young April, under the direction of Mr. Barber.

BUCKHOUT, Vice Pres. WILSON, Secretary TOMPKINS, President WOLFE, Treasurer

The junior class, outstanding in all activities, was one of the most prominent ever to represent P. H. S.

The varsity basketball team was composed of all juniors except one. Leading players of the class were Donald Byington, Jack Wolfe, Leon Davies, John Voland, and Paul Kopp. The juniors representing half the football team were Paul Kopp, Bill Redman, Donald Byington, Donald Buckhout, and Louis Vislay.

Drum Major Joan Lippert and Drum Majorette Betty Hufford added pep to the band. Richard Else proved himself an able actor by his lead performance in Dickens' Christmas Carol and the Farmers' Institute play, What a Life. Ruth Perrin and Hilda Schuele showed talent as oncoming artists. Albert Tompkins was chosen by the faculty to go, at the expense of the American Legion Perrysburg Post No. 28, to the Buckeye Boys' State Camp in Columbus.

Adapting the style of the Broadway production, Hellzapoppin', the juniors produced one of the cleverest convocation programs ever presented at P. H. S. The talented players in the swing band were Maxine McDonald, "hot" saxaphonist; Velma Weseman and Virginia Sattler, violinists; Bob Grolle, Gertrude Thornton, and Bill Redman, trumpet "tooters"; Annie Sprague and Albert Tompkins, slide trombonists; Mary Reed, clarinetist; and Junior Hahn, accordionist. Don Buckhout accented the band with a half-dozen drums. John Zachman, as master of ceremonies, and Donald Buckhout, as comedian, were humorous highlights of the program.

One of the gala events the class sponsored was the Sadie Hawkins' Dance, October 28. The juniors' funhouse was a major attraction of the Senior Class Carnival. Under the direction of Mr. Barber, the class presented the play Growing Pains, April 19.

Miss Brentlinger and Mr. Golding were the class sponsors.

A great array of sophomores have won places in the P. H. S. parade of honor.

Frank Kistler, president, was a reliable guard on the football team. Other sophomore substitutes of the team were Norman Brahier, Lee Canfield, Erven Failor, and Paul Shiple. The leading scorer on the reserve basketball team was Vernon Emch.

Representing the class in girls' athletics were Lois Grolle, captain of the sophomore girls' team, and Violet Spilker, captain of an intramural team.

Roland Cookson was a member of the cheerleading squad. Lois Cummings was the first sophomore to enter journalism. Dale Scheider and Edward Hess filled important positions in the band.

Those maintaining high scholarship were Jane Weeber, Lois Grolle, Bernard Mahler, Gladys Bostdorf, Betty Hillabrand, Freda Lee, Josephine Kostka, and Robert Reis.

The sophomore class began social activities with a weiner roast at Side Cut Park. Later they sponsored a movie, The Man in the Iron Mask, at the Palace Theatre, and gave a dance after the Maumee-Perrysburg basketball game. A bake sale provided funds for a spring dance.

Miss Suter and Mr. Huffman guided the class activities.

The freshman class was one of the largest to attend Perrysburg High School. The 109 young plebes had a very enjoyable year under the guidance of their sponsors Miss Crockett, Miss Young, and Mr. Barber. The freshman convocation program was amusing and different. Larry Jensen acted as Professor Quizz with ease. The quizz questions, answered by contestants Pauline Sheldrick, Elizabeth Pope, Louis Wehde, Richard Kindervater, and Eddie Bachor, involved the activities of both the student body and the faculty. Part of the program gave Bob Witaczack, Wayne Browning, Louis Gilles, Richard Lindsay, Billy Sanders, and Charles Hess a chance to show their musical talent. Amusing skits, portraying the life of the freshmen during their first week of school, revealed the ability of Laurie Ann Orr, Marietta Haas, Jean Carsten, Lucille Davis, Pat Nippe, Hubble Finch, David Fought, Kenneth Brossia, Robert Logee, and Delmar Harmon.

Frederick Wellstead was the freshman candid camerite. Bryant Wood and Dwight Burgess gave excellent performances in the Farmers' Institute play, What a Life.

Charles Babcock and Dwight Burgess were the freshman football heroes. Bernard Haas, Frederick Wellstead, and Robert Eckel won positions on the reserve basketball team. Prominent in girls' basketball were Marilyn Johnson, Marjorie Sarver, and Alice Sattler.

The freshmen made up a large part of the Girls' Glee Club. Jean Wiechel was outstanding as soloist. Representing the class in the band were Billy Sanders, Richard Kindervater, and Charles Hess; in the orchestra, Laurie Ann Orr, Donald Hemker, and Richard Kindervater.

The class held a closed dance and also a dance for the entire school.

Jean Carsten was elected secretary after Jane Carr withdrew from school. When Donald Honner, president, moved to Maumee, Vice-president Donald Thomas assumed the leadership of the class.

The addition of many new features by the 1940 annual staff make this BLACK AND GOLD one of the outstanding yearbooks of P. H. S.

The return to engraving is an important improvement. For the first time the opening section of the book is in two colors. Modern treatment of the senior panels, the class seals and ribbons, the novel cartoons, and the variety of type face—all combine to form an attractive yearbook. The senior directory, another new feature, improves the appearance of the senior section. Many snapshots of student activities add to the informality of the book.

Circulation was increased by the use of installment cards and by the printing of the cash subscribers' names on the annual covers.

The 1940 BLACK AND GOLD will be entered in the National Scholastic Press Association's All-American Critical Service for Yearbooks.

The most radical change made by the journalism class this year was the adoption of an eight page, three-column newspaper layout. The purchase of a new mimeoscope and letter guides made possible greater variations in headlines. The modernized Somethin' has won recognition from many corresponding newspaper staffs.

The Somethin' was entered in contests sponsored by the Quill and Scroll, the National Scholastic Press Association, and Alpha Phi Gamma and the Toledo Blade. The staff is a member of the Northwestern Ohio Scholastic Press Association and the Northwestern Ohio District Journalism Association.

Early this year the Perrysburg staff was host to 150 members of the N. W. O. S. P. A. at a banquet and dance. Mr. Grove Patterson, editor of the Toledo Blade, was guest speaker for the occasion.

The entire staff took part in the all-day convention of the N. W. O. D. J. A., held at Burnham High School, Sylvania, which was attended by 444 members from high schools in Northwestern Ohio. A skit written and directed by Bob Dibling was presented as after-dinner entertainment.

Beginning a full year of activities, the Boosters' Club held the annual Homecoming Dance, which welcomed all alumni of P. H. S.

The club organized a cheering section for athletic contests, sold football pins, and distributed pencils on which were printed the basketball schedule.

This year the Boosters returned to the custom of sponsoring the Athletic Banquet and Dance. Record dances arranged by the organization furnished noon-time activity.

Because of the large membership and the lack of school time for meetings, all plans were made by the officers. Mr. Munger served as sponsor.

Eight seniors were elected to the National Honor Society in 1940. Selection was made on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership, and service to the school. Election to this group is the highest honor a high school can bestow.

This year's members were induced into the organization at the Christmas convocation, and at that time received their membership keys.

The club's basketball team retained the district Hi-Y championship, won last year, by defeating Hi-Y teams from Sylvania, Rossford, Waite, Woodward, and DeVilbiss.

The meetings of the Latin clubs, held during class time, gave the students a deeper appreciation of Roman civilization and its place in modern life. A tour of the Roman exhibits in the Toledo Museum of Art was a major activity of the year.

In collaboration with the French class the Latin clubs presented an outstanding foreign language convocation February 14. Latin and French songs, a Vestal Virgin drill, a series of effective tableaux, and a French adaptation of "Li'l Abner" made up the varied and entertaining program.

The Latin and French classes joined in a picnic to conclude the program for the year.

SCENES FROM "WHAT A LIFE"

Again the dramatics department, under the able direction of Mr. Robert J. Barber, maintained its reputation for unique and outstanding productions.

The well-known Broadway play, What a Life, by Clifford Goldsmith, was the dramatics department's contribution to the Farmers' Institute, February 6 and 7. Pat Tobey, Richard Else, and Bryant Wood gave excellent performances.

Dickens' Christmas Carol, presented by the expression class, lent a very effective spirit to the Christmas convocation and to the Christmas P. T. A. meeting. Richard Else very ably characterized Scrooge, and was well supported by members of the speech class.

The junior class presented a three-act comedy, Growing Pains, April 19, with Suzanne Rogers and John Zachman in the leading roles. The seniors brought back the same delightful McIntyre family in the sequel, Young April, given May 22.

The Girls' Glee Club, with a membership of fifty-four, was the most outstanding and successful choral group this year.

Under the direction of Mr. Dan L. Farmer, the club sang for the Farmers' Institute and convocation, and joined with the A Cappella Choir and band for the spring festival.

The organization received a rating of three plus in the Northwestern Ohio District Music Contest at Bluffton, March 15.

The Girls' Glee Club joined the Boys' Glee Club in a roast at Side-Cut Park in the fall.

The G. A. A. organized intramural teams in basketball, volley ball, and indoor baseball. The squads played during the noon hour, and trophies were awarded the winners of the tournament.

Club funds were increased by a bake sale and the selling of magic slates.

A hike, roast, and splash party were among the successful parties of the season.

The G. A. A. had charge of the May Day program and the formal dance in the evening. Pat Tobey was elected queen of the festivities. She was attended by Bud Wambold, as Robinhood, and Dolly Baker, maid of honor.

1939 Yellow Jackets

The 1939 football campaign was not so successful as many others P. H. S. has experienced, but it was outstanding in fine teamwork and spirit. Each member of the squad showed willingness to cooperate in every way possible with the new coach, Dale Kuhlman.

The graduation of eleven senior lettermen will weaken the Jacket ranks for next year. Among the outstanding graduates are Irv Johnson, varsity end and high scorer for four years; Bob Marriott, four-year letterman, considered the best kicker ever to play for Perrysburg; Ed Wambold, 1939 captain and quarter back; and Warren Byington, varsity center, who played every minute of every contest for the past two seasons.

Fifty-one candidates, five of them lettermen reported for spring practice. From these, Coaches Kuhlman and Golding expect to pick a very capable team to represent the school next season.

Highlights of the Season

Defiance 13 — Perrysburg 7

Opening the season against Defiance, the Yellow Jackets scored first on an intercepted pass by Kopp, and held the lead until the last quarter.

However, the lack of experienced reserves proved fatal. In the last five minutes the Bulldogs scored twice to win.

Delta 6 — Perrysburg 7

Over-confidence accounted for this scant 1-point victory over a team the Jackets should have beaten very decisively. Johnson scored on an end-around play in the second quarter.

An intercepted pass enabled Delta to score, but they were unable to make the extra point.

Sylvania 0 — Perrysburg 6

Sylvania was slated to win this battle, but the Jackets proved their worth by upsetting all predictions. Johnson scored on a 35-yard pass from Marriott. The Wildcats could not get within the Perrysburg 20-yard line during the entire game.

Genoa 0 — Perrysburg 14

Playing their finest game of the season, the Perrysburg eleven completely outsmarted Genoa.

Both touchdowns were the result of many running plays. Genoa threatened to score only once, but a fumble on the 2-yard line snuffed out the chance.

Rossford 21 — Perrysburg 0

Perrysburg didn't seem to be able to get going against their old rival. Perhaps Friday the 13th had something to do with the failure of plays to work, punts being blocked, and the lack of drive by the whole team.

Whitmer 7 — Perrysburg 7

Marriott's scoring in the first three minutes of play was not enough to defeat the hard-fighting Whitmer squad.

Whitmer scored on hard, line-smashing plays in the third quarter. The Jackets were able to get to the opponents' 10-yard line, but lacked the drive to put the ball over the goal.

Bowling Green 7 — Perrysburg 0

Lucky breaks for Bee Gee and a few bad plays by Perrysburg were determining factors in this loss. The Jackets got as far as the 12-yard line, but a fumbled pass ruined the chance to score.

Although the Bobcats were in scoring position several times, the Jackets allowed them to score only once.

Napoleon 6 — Perrysburg 14

Irv Johnson proved to be Napoleon's Waterloo when he scored both touchdowns for Perrysburg, one on a pass, and the other on an end-around play.

Napoleon's touchdown came as the result of a long completed pass.

Maumee 12 — Perrysburg 0

In the annual Armistice Day game the Jackets were completely outplayed by their oldest rivals, the Maumee Panthers. With several regulars on the bench, the Panthers were able to score two touchdowns in quick succession to give them their victory.

VISLAY

Perrysburg Yellow Jackets

Don Buckhout, Tackle
Varsity 3, Junior

Injuries slowed "Buckie" up in a few of this season's contests, but he could always hold a regular position. His third year on the varsity was much superior to his two previous seasons.

Bill Redman, Guard
Varsity 2, Junior

Bill was a quiet boy on the field, but "Actions speak louder than words." He was responsible for many of the losses sustained by the opponents.

Louis Vislay, Guard
Varsity 1, Junior

Although Louie started the season rather mildly, by the fourth game he was warmed up. Against Genoa he got 50 percent of the tackles, and from then on his defensive work was very good.

Irv Johnson, End
Varsity 4, Senior

Irv made most of the team's touchdowns via the end-around play. His speed made him a hard man to overtake after he had caught the pigskin. He will be hard to replace next year.

Tony Richards, Tackle
Varsity 1, Senior

A fine tackler and blocker, Tony put all he had into his game. His team spirit was an inspiration to every member of the squad.

Bud Kistler, Back
Varsity 2, Senior

Small but mighty, Bud liked the game and played hard all the time. He could always be counted on to go into any competition and do his best.

Ready for any Opposition

Bud Wambold, Back
Varsity 2, Senior

Bud, elected captain, was considered the driving cog of the squad. Bud's earnestness and willingness made him one of Perrysburg's finest players.

Paul Kopp, End
Varsity 3, Junior

"Koppie" barely tipped the scales at 145, but very few plays could get around his end. He was able to sense the opponent plays, and usually managed to break them up.

Don Byington, Back
Varsity 3, Junior

Don started the season as regular guard, but was switched to full back, where his driving power enabled him to make many gains. P. H. S. is expecting a lot from Don next year.

Jim Cryan, Back
Varsity 1, Senior

Playing his first year as a regular, Jimmy appeared to be nervous in some games. He played his best at Genoa, where he made several long runs. Few enemy passes were completed in Jim's territory.

Warren Byington, Center
Varsity 2, Senior

Shifted from tackle to center this year, Warren played his new position very well. He was considered one of the best tacklers on the team.

Bob Marriott, Back
Varsity 4, Senior

"Rab," one of the few players to make the varsity his freshman year, played an important role in all victories by his "educated toe" and his able passing.

Varsity Basketball

The Yellow Jackets started off the 1939-40 season by defeating the Pemberville five 41 to 36. It looked like a good season ahead, but the following three games were lost to Clay, 38 to 19; Rossford, 36 to 17; and Central, 37 to 27.

In a return game with Pemberville the local boys lost after two exciting overtime periods, with the final score being 34 to 32. The second game with Clay saw the enemies again defeat the Jackets, this time by a 36 to 30 verdict. DeVilbiss handed Perrysburg another 32 to 22 lacing the following week.

The Perrysburg squad played their best game of the season against their closest rivals, the Maumee Panthers, and snowed them under with a 33 to 14 win.

Not so successful against another close rival, the Rossford Bulldogs, the Jackets were repulsed by a 36 to 17 count.

Defiance and Kenton won over Perrysburg by 31 to 20, and 35 to 15 scores, respectively; but the following week, the home team returned to the win column by pounding out a 44 to 22 win over the hapless Sylvania quintet.

Maumee evened the score with the Yellow Jackets by virtue of a 26 to 24 win. Perrysburg was ahead much of the time, but a last-quarter rally gave the Panthers their victory.

The last game of the season was played at Bowling Green, with the Bobcats aiding in wrecking the season for Perrysburg by winning the game 26 to 20.

In the Class A tournament held at Defiance, the Yellow Jackets were eliminated after their first game with Swanton. It was a close contest all the way; but when the final whistle blew, Swanton was ahead 31 to 24.

Coaches

Assistant Coach Abke
Coach Kuhlman

Paul Kopp, Forward
Varsity 2, Junior

"Koppie" was one of the most consistent scorers on the team. His speed and deception made him a hard man to guard.

John Voland, Center
Varsity 1, Junior

Big John's height made him a valuable man under the basket. His specialty was a one-hand pivot shot, which accounted for many of P. H. S. points.

Bill Christman, Guard
Varsity 1, Senior

"Chris" couldn't earn a starting position, but his fine team work always helped when he went into a close game.

Don Byington, Guard
Varsity 1, Junior

"Bing" wasn't the best point-getter, but his passing and team spirit made him a valuable man on the squad.

Bob Grolle, Center
Varsity, 1, Junior

Bob had keen competition for his position all season. He could play either guard or center, and always held his man to a very few points.

Junior Hahn, Forward
Varsity 1, Junior

Although not playing much varsity ball this year, "Junie" proved an able substitute. With the experience acquired on the reserve squad he should be able to gain a regular berth next year.

Leon Davies, Guard
Varsity 1, Junior

Leon was elected honorary captain because of his ability for leadership. He was the highest scorer on the team for the entire season.

Jack Wolfe, Forward
Varsity 1, Junior

Jack was the fastest player on the team. His shooting ability and speed made him a dangerous man on any part of the floor.

Reserve Basketeers

The reserve basketball squad is formed each year for the purpose of giving underclassmen a chance to get game experience. It is considered the stepping-stone to a varsity position.

Reserve Coach Abke experimented with several different lineups throughout the season in the hope of finding the best varsity material.

Experiments such as these may have caused the team to lose a few games, but far more important than winning every game is the fact that more boys are given a chance to show their ability "under fire."

Interclass Champions

The senior class monopolized the interclass tournament this year, with both the boys and the girls winning championships.

The senior boys handed the juniors a deciding 32 to 24 defeat in the finals. The most exciting game of the boys' division was between the seniors and the sophomores. The upper classmen were forced to play five minutes of overtime to win.

The senior girls, after eliminating the sophomores 9 to 6, defeated the freshmen by a 15 to 10 score. The freshmen eliminated the juniors 6 to 5 in the preliminaries.

Both squads were presented with gold trophies, which are to have the names of the members engraved on them.

Intramural Champions

The boys' intramural honors were captured by Elmer Lintner's team. Although finishing fifth in the league, his team upset Johnson's in the final game of the tournament by winning 16 to 15.

Ed Wambold's team were the league champions, but they failed to do so well in the tourney.

Violet Spilker's squad was tops in the girls' division. Tobey's team, runner-up, was defeated 14 to 9 in the concluding round of the play-offs.

The senior class, which sponsored the tournament to raise money for the class fund, presented the team captains with gold trophies.

ADVERTISEMENTS

IMPORTANT EDUCATION

It seems to us that one of the most important things that students can learn, in connection with acquiring an education, is the ability to properly purchase commodities. They should be taught the difference between necessities and non-necessities; expensive and inexpensive items; and when to make seasonal purchases. Many articles used in everyday life are purchased on a payment plan, and it is extremely important that the purchaser learn to distinguish between finance plans, particularly as to rates.

Our company welcomes such an investigation.
